TROPICAL MEDICINE.

PROPOSED LONDON INSTITUTE.

ROSS'S FINE WORK.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, June 22.

A letter to the Times signed by a number of distinguished personages, including Mr. Asquith, Lord Hardinge, Lord Lansdowne and Professor Richard Strong of Harvard, on the occasion of the forthcoming 25th anniversary of Sir Ronald Ross's epoch-making discovery of the transmission of malaria to humans through the bite of the mosquito, appeals for £50,000 to establish a Ross Institute of tropical diseases in London similar to the Pasteur Institute in Paris, the Kitasato Institute in Japan and the Gorgas Institute in Panama.

[Colonel Sir Ronald Ross, professor of tropical sanitation and a leading authority on tropical diseases generally, was for many years in the Indian Medical Service, and was awarded the Nobel Prize for Medicine in 1922. Pasteur was the eminent French scientist whose researches in connection with hydrophobia, bacteriology, and the specific germs of cholera and other diseases have been of immense benefit to mankind. The Pasteur Institute which he founded in Paris has attained universal celebrity.]

IDLE SHIPS.

WORST DEPRESSION OVER.

EXPERT REVIEW.

GOTHENBURG, June 22.

The annual Baltic and White Sea Conference opened yesterday, embracing fifteen nations. The total tonnage entered in the conference represents 4,500,000 tons.

Sir William Noble resigned the Presidentship. Lord Theodore Salvesen was elected. Lord Salvesen, in the course of his opening address, pointed out that 5,000,000 tons of shipping were laid up in America, to say nothing of tonnage still idle in European ports. Nevertheless wages, stores, insurances, and ship-repairs were down compared with last year. Bunker coal was a conspicuous exception. Lord Salvesen concluded by expressing the opinion that the worst depression was now behind. The subsequent proceedings were secret.

[Sir William Noble, Chairman of the Cairn Line, has been Chairman of the United Kingdom Chamber of Shipping. Lord Salvesen, a Leith shipowner, has been a Judge of the Scottish Court of Session.]

HOME POLITICS.

VICTORY FOR LIBERALS.

LABOUR DOWN.

LONDON, June 22.

The Liberals have gained a seat from the Government in the Tiverton by-election occasioned by the death of Mr. H. W. Sparkes. The by-election resulted as follows:

Acland (Liberal)	12,041
Troyte (Conservative)	11,638
F. Brown (Labour)	495

[The figures for the General Election were:—H. W. Sparkes (Conservative) 10,304; the Rt. Hon. F. D. Acland (Liberal) 10,230; and F. Brown (Labour) 1,457. Tiverton is on the border of Devon, 14 miles north of Exeter. The Earls of Devon used to have a castle here, but it was dismantled after its capture by Fairfax in 1645 and now the gateway is about all that remains.]

CHINA MISSION WORK.

AMERICA BEARS BURDEN.

LONDON, June 22.

At a conference of British Missionary Societies at Swanwick Mr. Kenneth MacLennan, the Secretary, said America was bearing the predominant burden of Christian Missions to China, contributing nearly £2,000,000 annually, compared with £325,000 from Britain.

UNDER SEAL.

LINER'S LIQUOR DOOMED.

DELICATE POINT.

LONDON, June 22.

Regarding the "Berengaria" it is learned that the British Government is nowise challenges the authority of the United States officials to break the seals and confiscate the liquor, but if the liquor is dumped into the sea by American customs authorities a delicate point of international law might arise.

[The "Berengaria" sailed for New York with liquor under British customs seals. This liquor was intended for outward voyage. New York officials have been instructed to break the seals.]

HONGKONG NOTES AND COMMENT.

DELIVERIES BRISK.

Deliveries of small lots from godowns during the last two days have been fairly brisk on account of the Wuchow river steamers accepting cargo for shipment to that port. Piecegoods, yarn, hardware, flour &c. have all been prominent as no regular shipments have gone up for over a month. A little business has also been done in provisions. Nam Pak Hong rice merchants are looking forward to improved conditions as there has been a stream of orders for both Canton and Wuchow. The market remains steady.

EXPORT DULL.

Little has been done by exporters except for some small lots of aniseed. There is little to report in the more important commodities.

SWATOW.

Merchants who trade with Swatow have been advised that coolies are now available at that port for discharging and loading ships but as the political situation is still unsettled, everything is dull.

HONGKONG TRADE.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE REPORT.

The fortnightly report issued by the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce states:

Cotton Piece Goods and Fancy Cotton Goods.—During the interval Grey Shirtings 10 lbs. and 7 lbs. have been in demand, and extensive sales have been effected. A large business is reported in White and Dyed Lawns, probably 4,500 cases. Clearances, especially of Staples, show a distinct improvement.

Cotton Yarn.—The Yarn market has ruled dull for the period under review and a limited business has been done at a small reduction in prices.

Quotations are:—No. 10s. $62/100. No. 12s. $109/100. No. 16s. $193/204. No. 20s. $180/206. Arrivals 4,000 bales. Shipments nil. Sales 1,000 bales. Unsold stock 73,000 bales. Bargains 9,000 bales.

Woolens.—There is no change to report.

Raw Cottons.—Values are nominally unaltered as follows:—Indian qualities at $34/39 Chinese grades at $37/44. Prices are all nominal in the absence of business. A failure in the market has caused some uneasiness amongst dealers.

Flour market report.—Stock: about 650,000 sacks. Market dull. Quotations: American Patent $3.65 per sack; American Straight $2.90 per sack; American Cut off $2.95 per sack; Shanghai Flour $2.90 per sack; Australian No. 1 $2.90 per sack.

Sundries.—Very few. Market quiet.

Sugar.—Market steady but quiet.

Saltpetre.—Very heavy stock and no buyers.

UNITED STATES SHIPPING ON DOWN GRADE.

With or without Government assistance and control, and with or without subsidy or discriminating legislation, official records go to show that the United States flag as a shipping institution can not only make no headway against the older and more experienced maritime nations, but cannot even hold its own, says a Home commercial paper in mail week. According to the National Merchant Marine Association, United States ships "are transporting barely a fourth of our service trade, and the proportion continues to diminish." The association further declares that foreign competition for the ocean carrying of American imports and exports "has now become so strong that the bulk of the freight moved is carried in foreign vessels." Based upon official returns made to the Shipping Board of the actual tons carried in February, the association estimates that United States ships are now transporting 35 per cent of the volume of the "total sea commerce," 25 per cent of the overseas trade in dry cargo, 39 per cent of the dry cargo trade to the West Indies and nearby regions, 29 per cent of foreign trade, excluding tanker oil movements and trade on the Great Lakes, and 60 per cent of oil shipped to and from United States ports. Notwithstanding the 76 per cent of oil exports which is carried in United States vessels, foreign shipowners have succeeded in increasing the 65 per cent of the total United States exports they were transporting two years ago to 71 per cent, at the present time. Not only in proportion of trade carried, but in the volume of cargoes as well, United States ships have fallen back, while the foreigner has forged ahead. In the overseas dry cargo trade, for instance, while in February, 1923, United States vessels carried 229,000 tons less than in February 1922, foreign vessels transported 185,000 tons more than they did in the previous period.

OUR POLICE FORCE.

COMPENSATION FOR FAMILIES.

During last year's budget debate, the Hon. Mr. Chow Shou-son urged that the Government should compensate the family of any police man who might lose his life in the discharge of his duty. The Colonial Secretary said the subject was under the consideration of the Government. Council could rest assured that where men risked their lives and were killed in the performance of their duties the Government recognised that their families should not suffer by their deaths. The Government Gazette to-day contains regulations putting this suggestion into effect, providing that (1.) It shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to award to the widow and orphans of an officer who has been killed in the discharge of his duty, or who dies as a direct result of injuries received while on duty, or who dies of illness the contraction of which was specifically attributable to the nature of his duties, a pension not exceeding ten sixtieths of the deceased officer's salary or $100 a year, whichever sum is greater; Provided that this maximum may be exceeded in exceptional cases. (2.) If the widow of any such officer marries again her pension under this regulation shall cease on such remarriage; Provided that the pension may, in the discretion of the Governor in Council, be revived upon re-widowhood. (3.) The pension to an orphan under this regulation shall cease in the case of a male at the age of 18 years and in the case of a female on marriage or at the age of 21 years. Pensions granted under these regulations need not be reported to the Secretary of State except— (a) in the case of pensions payable in Great Britain, when the amount awarded should be simply reported to the Colonial Office, and at the same time instructions given to the Crown Agents to issue the pensions; and (b) in the case of officers who have served in more than one Colony, in which case it is desirable that the usual pension paper of particulars should be sent to England inasmuch as the amount awarded may affect the amount payable by the Colonial Government.

The Colonial Treasurer should furnish the Auditor with the usual paper of particulars of every pension granted under these Regulations, as soon as possible after the pension has been awarded, in support of the first payment of such pension.

CARELESS SERVANT.

MASTER FINED FOR HAVING ARMS.

A member of the crew of a patrol launch organised by the gentry of Kowloon to patrol the delta near that town, was charged before Mr. R. E. Lindsell this morning with the unlawful possession of 37 rounds of Winchester ammunition. He was arrested on one of the river steamer wharves as he was about to leave the Colony this morning. Defendant stated that he came to Hongkong to see one of the masters responsible for the upkeep of his launch to draw the pay. Prior to leaving Kowloon he had given instructions to his servant to empty all the ammunition from his bag and believed that he had done so. On the trip down he noticed the ammunition and decided to bring it into Hongkong and take it away when he left. This he was doing this morning when he was arrested. Sub-Inspector Macdonald informed His Worship that defendant's story was quite probable as he had over $200 in Chinese silver coins with him. His Worship remarked on the suspicion with which possession of arms was viewed here and imposed a fine of $50.

GUILD DISPUTE.

SEAMEN'S UNION OFFICIAL DEPORTED.

TEN YEARS' EXILE.

Kwong Tat-sang, one of the local Seamen's Union officials, has been deported from the Colony for ten years. He was arrested some weeks ago and released on $2,000 bail. It is stated that the reason for this decision is that he is alleged to have been implicated in a dispute with a rival guild and to have exceeded the limits of the law. Nominally he was the "outside affairs" man of his guild, i.e., he was their authorised spokesman in negotiations with other guilds, &c. but he has taken a prominent part in its activities since the guild's inception. He was one of the delegates who took part in the negotiations leading up to the settlement of last year's big strike.

SOLDIERS LOOT KAIFENG FU SUBURB.

DRASTIC ACTION NEEDED.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

KAIFENG FU, June 21. Two hundred soldiers last night looted the south suburbs. Many shops were robbed.

Ten thousand troops were stationed in the south suburb but they did not attempt to prevent the looting.

The situation will be serious unless the authorities take drastic steps immediately.—Reuter.

BANDITS STILL MAKING TROUBLE.

PEKING, June 22. Chinese bandits, operating in the vicinity of Chientao plain, have threatened local officials and rich residents. Bandits have looted the Likin station at Pin Sheng-pu near Ichang.—Reuter.

HEAVY JAPAN RAINS.

SEVERAL DEATHS AND HEAVY DAMAGE.

TOKYO, June 22. Kyushu and Western Honshu have been visited with heavy rains, resulting in floods which have extensively damaged property, crops and communications. There have been several deaths and casualties are reported from landslides.—Reuter.

Lammert Bros. advertise the sale by public auction on July 3, at 3 p.m., of the business of the Motor Cycle Exchange (including the Jitney Bus service) with all stock in trade, gear, etc., as a going concern. The stock comprises a number of cycles and cars of well-known makes and a large quantity of spares and stores. The sale will take place at the company's premises, No. 40, Coronation Road, next to the Kowloon Motor Bus Co.

Mr. A. E. Carver was in the Supreme Court on April 21, admitted to the Bar of the Straits Settlements. Mr. J. G. Campbell, who moved for Mr. Carver's admission, stated that he formerly practised as a Proctor in the Supreme Court of Colombo and intended to practise in Malacca. His Lordship Mr. Justice Barrett-Lennard said he had great pleasure in calling Mr. Carver to the Bar of the Straits Settlements, where the standard approximated to the Bar at home. He hoped that Mr. Carver would find practising in the Straits Settlements profitable and pleasurable.

FRIGHT RIOTS.

INDIANS AND "HUMAN SACRIFICES."

An extraordinary situation prevails at Poona (the summer capital of the Bombay Presidency) where the superstitious Mahatras forming the bulk of the population believe that, reviving a centuries-old custom, dark-skinned Madras workmen are kidnapping boys and burying them alive, beneath a dam under construction near the city to propitiate the local gods.

The population has started a campaign against all dark-skinned strangers, some of whom have been murdered or assaulted.

Two servants of a visiting landowner are among those killed. A crowd pursued and badly beat a coolie who was accused by two boys of having attempted to drug him.

The authorities have succeeded in slightly allaying the fears of the superstitious Mahatras, and have restored comparative quiet.

Commenting on these outbreaks of mob violence, the Times of India says they represent an instance of how an Indian mob may be "quieted" by an unfounded rumour.

CHURCH NOTES.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

Are we conscious that the Spirit of God dwells in us? Throughout this Letter to the Romans, verses from which are chosen for to-morrow's Epistle, St. Paul assumes that all who are definitely trying to lead a Christian life will be conscious of the presence of the Holy Spirit from which follows a sense of consecration and a sense of sinship. This support of the indwelling Spirit, will help us to bear the disappointment and suffering which is in some mysterious way necessary for all creatures since the Fall; just as in Nature there is waste and sadness by reason of the law of corruption just as the death of Winter is necessary for the birth of Spring, just as a woman groans in her travail, but groans not without hope knowing that the birth of her child will justify her pain so all joy is the fruit of suffering. But through all this necessary discipline of pain, hope shines, a hope which expects good things, not yet in sight, yet strong enough readily to endure all things till they come, the confident hope and trust of sons in their Father's goodness and wisdom, the hope of those who yield themselves to the leading of the Holy Spirit, the hope of those whose treasure is laid up in Heaven and can cry exultingly with St. Paul, "I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us."

When Jesus says "Judge not" He does not of course mean that Christians should lower their ideals, indeed their standard of goodness for themselves must always be higher than that of the world, but He does mean that they must not be critical, that they must try to make the best of everybody. So strenuously must we look to our own personal holiness that we shall have no time to find fault with others but rather knowing how difficult it is to follow Christ wholeheartedly, cannot condemn them when we see their failures but desire to help them in the struggle which we also find so difficult.

There is a great comfort for us in what we might call "the justness" of the opening words of the Gospel; it is very difficult always to know what is the will of God concerning ourselves, but of His Will concerning our attitude towards others there is no doubt and if we follow it, we gain as much, and more than we give. If we forgive, we shall be forgiven; if we judge not, we shall not be judged; if we do not condemn we shall not be condemned; the reward may be a long time coming but we cannot doubt the words of Jesus Himself Who tells us our gain will be far greater than the cost. "Good measure, shaken down and running over, shall men give into your bosom."

"Judge not."
"A leaf may hide the largest sin"
From love's uplifted eye;
A mote of prejudice out-bar
A world of charity.

To-morrow is also the Feast of St. John the Baptist, it is the day of his birth not of his martyrdom. St. Augustine says that the Church excepted him from this rule of commemorating his death because he was sanctified from his mother's womb. Nothing is known of his life beyond what is told in the Gospel, where the strange circumstance surrounding his birth are given in great detail by St. Luke, and remind us of the birth of Abraham's son.

In picture he is drawn with long hair and beard, clad in a tunic of camel's hair fastened with a leather girdle and over this a mantle, his feet usually bare but sometimes shod with sandals. In Greek paintings a pair of wings are attached to his shoulders, since the Greek Church interprets literally the words of St. Mark "Behold I send My Angel (messenger in our text) before Thy face."

June 26th, is St. Peter's day, the Prince of the Apostles who made the great confession of the divinity of Christ, nor as we read the account of it are we surprised that to-day nineteen hundred years later some people yet question His divinity for when St. Peter says "Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God" our Lord knew this would prove a stumbling block and replies "Blessed art thou Bar-Jona, for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee but My Father which is in heaven."

Peter's father was a fisherman of Bethsaida and Peter was born about ten years before the birth of Jesus Christ, and a few years after his brother Andrew. When he was called to follow Christ, he was a married man and left his wife and two children literally for nothing to become a fisher of men. Legend tells us that this wife was an ardent Christian, (the Gospel tells us that Jesus cured her mother of a fever,

—perhaps this was the beginning of her discipleship and that on her way to martyrdom she met St. Peter who encouraged and exhorted her and together they rejoiced that she had the honour of being called in such a way to her heavenly home. Another legend says that when Nero resolved to have Peter put to death, the Christians in Rome besought the Apostle to try to make his escape — at last he rejected this proposal thinking that it would be a reflection upon his courage, he who taught that it was an honour to suffer for Christ, but at last their entreaties overcame him and in the dead of night he escaped over the prison wall and walked swiftly to the gate of the city. As he was just going out One passed him entering the city and the astonished Peter recognised His Lord. Whither art Thou going? he asked and Jesus replied "I am going to Rome to be crucified a second time." From this answer Peter inferred that he was himself worthy of reproval and that our Lord meant that He was to be crucified afresh in the person of His servant, so the Apostle returned to prison and delivered himself to his persecutors. To-day on the place sanctified by that mysterious meeting stands the little church of "Domine Quo Vadis."

First they scourged St. Peter and then he was led to the top of the Vatican Mount and crucified, begging the favour of the officers that he might not suffer in the ordinary way but with his head downwards and his feet pointing towards heaven because he felt unworthy to be crucified in the same posture wherein his Lord had suffered before him.

"Beware of Peter's word, nor confidently say
"I never will deny Thee Lord!"
But "Grant I never may!"

Some years ago the incumbent of a very remote and poverty stricken parish in Wales besought his diocesan's support for the little church, which threatened to collapse at any moment. But the Bishop, in reply, referred the vicar to the diocesan legal authorities, pointing out that such work was contemplated would first of all involve a faculty. As there was little money for the work and none for a faculty, there the correspondence ended. Not quite, however, for some months later the vicar wrote to his Bishop again, and as follows:—"My Lord, Capel-Ystrad-Towyn Church came down last night—without a faculty!"

Upon the recent panic of the English Press lest the Ten Commandments should be rewritten, the New York American observes:—"The Ten Commandments don't need to be re-written half as much as they need to be re-read."

OUR JUNE MOVIE CALENDAR.

FILM PROGRESS

There can be little doubt that an intelligent use of the film might consolidate the British Empire by making all the great imperial problems clear to the multitude, as no other agency could. "Shoer ignorance, barefaced and unashamed, not the excitement of quick change. It is only an obdurate to memory and any kind of concentration. That is the danger of the firmness which in no doubt be avoided if it be combined with other kinds of teaching and if the firms are carefully chosen; but the danger is there. There is a kind of teaching which covers the pupil's knowledge about everything and knowledge of nothing, which enables him to talk about any subject, but to no purpose. The results may be no worse than those of mere drudgery, but they are desperate, and they are not education.

Back again in Hollywood, Wyndham Standing has recommenced work with Emile Chantard, a former famous Players director. Chantard directed Out of the Shadows and Lewis Dayton is appearing in the Kimball Young's next picture—Cordelia the Magnificent. Huntley Gordon, another favourite of his audience, has also a leading rôle. Dayton plays an Englishman—complicated with mania.

Paul's Cathedral is an epic in stone: Both are enduring monuments of the genius of the Renaissance in England.

Many interesting kinema plays are in the process of being filmed at the various studios in and around Los Angeles, but none of them show greater promise than "The Sign", a stage play written by Jane Cowl and June Murfin, which Mrs. Murfin is not only producing but directing as well. It has a modern social background, and the action revolves around the lives of a young clergyman and an aristocratic girl. Miss Cowl was to have starred in the stage version of the story more than a year ago, but other plans interfered and it was decided to make a picture of it. The cast is headed by Rockliffe Fellowes and Miss May Allison.

Cecil B. De Mille is filming a modern story to be called "The Ten Commandments." The filming of the prologue will start in a huge throne room in Pharaoh's palace, which has been built at the Looney studio, after which some 2,500 people and 4,000 animals are to be transported to the sand dunes near Santa Maria, Cal., where many days will be spent making Biblical scenes for the picture.

David Belasco is to arrive in Los Angeles in June, with Lenore Ulric for the filming of "Tiger Rose", in which she is to be starred. Sidney Franklin will direct and Edmund Goulding is preparing the screen version. Following this "The Gold Diggers" is to be filmed under the direction of Harry Beaumont.

Mary Astor, who recently became a Paramount star, is at work on her first picture, a screen version of "To the Ladies," a play by George S. Kaufman and Marc Connelly, directed by Alfred Green. Robert Agnew is to be co-starred with Miss Astor.

Robert Edeson are featured in a Paramount production, "The Silent Partner," by Maximilian Foster. It is being directed by Charles Maigne.

Frank E. Woods, Thompson Buchanan and Elmer Harris, who have combined forces for the making of pictures, are just completing their first production. It is "King Richard the Lion Hearted" and is an adaptation of Walter Scott's novel, "The Talisman." Wallace Beery, who was "King Richard" in "Robin Hood," is playing a similar role in this production. Their second picture is to be Peter B. Kyne's story, "Harbour Bar," which Thompson Buchanan is adapting. The third story is to be an original one by Elmer Harris.

"A Gentleman of Leisure," a comedy by John Stapleton and P. H. Wodehouse, is to be made by Paramount, with Jack Holt playing the leading rôle and Joseph Henry directing.

Kathleen Norris' novel, "Lucretia Lombard," has been adapted for the screen and will shortly be filmed by Harry Repf. Irene Rich will play one of the featured roles.

Ernest Torrence, who was Bill Jackson in "The Covered Wagon," to head the cast in Emersonough's story, "North of 36," which is to be filmed under the supervision of George Melford.

Helbrook: Blinn who has been appearing in California in Porter Emerson Brown's play "The Bad Man," is to be starred in a screen version of the same play, the filming of which will start the latter part of May. Edwin Curran, who is just finished directing "The Girl of the Golden West," will direct the production.

Again Dame Ramour, in London, has picked a bride for the Prince of Wales, who seems a little backward about picking one for himself. This time it is Lady Phyllis King, daughter of Lord Lovelace, who is now reported engaged to the heir to the British throne.

"We manage somehow," said Mrs. John H. Hahn, a widow, when asked how she raised this healthy brood of seven sons on an income of less than $125 a month.

This is the most recent photograph of Yehia Ibrahim Pasha, newly elected Prime Minister of Egypt, who will help King Fouad in ruling the Kingdom on the Nile. The King had objected to having a Premier, asking supreme power, but this was refused by the electorate, who elected the Pasha.

Miss Coralea Ramey, night nurse, gave details of the sensational escape of Gerald Chapman, $2,000,000 mail bandit, who escaped from prison, was wounded when recaptured and later fled again from hospital.

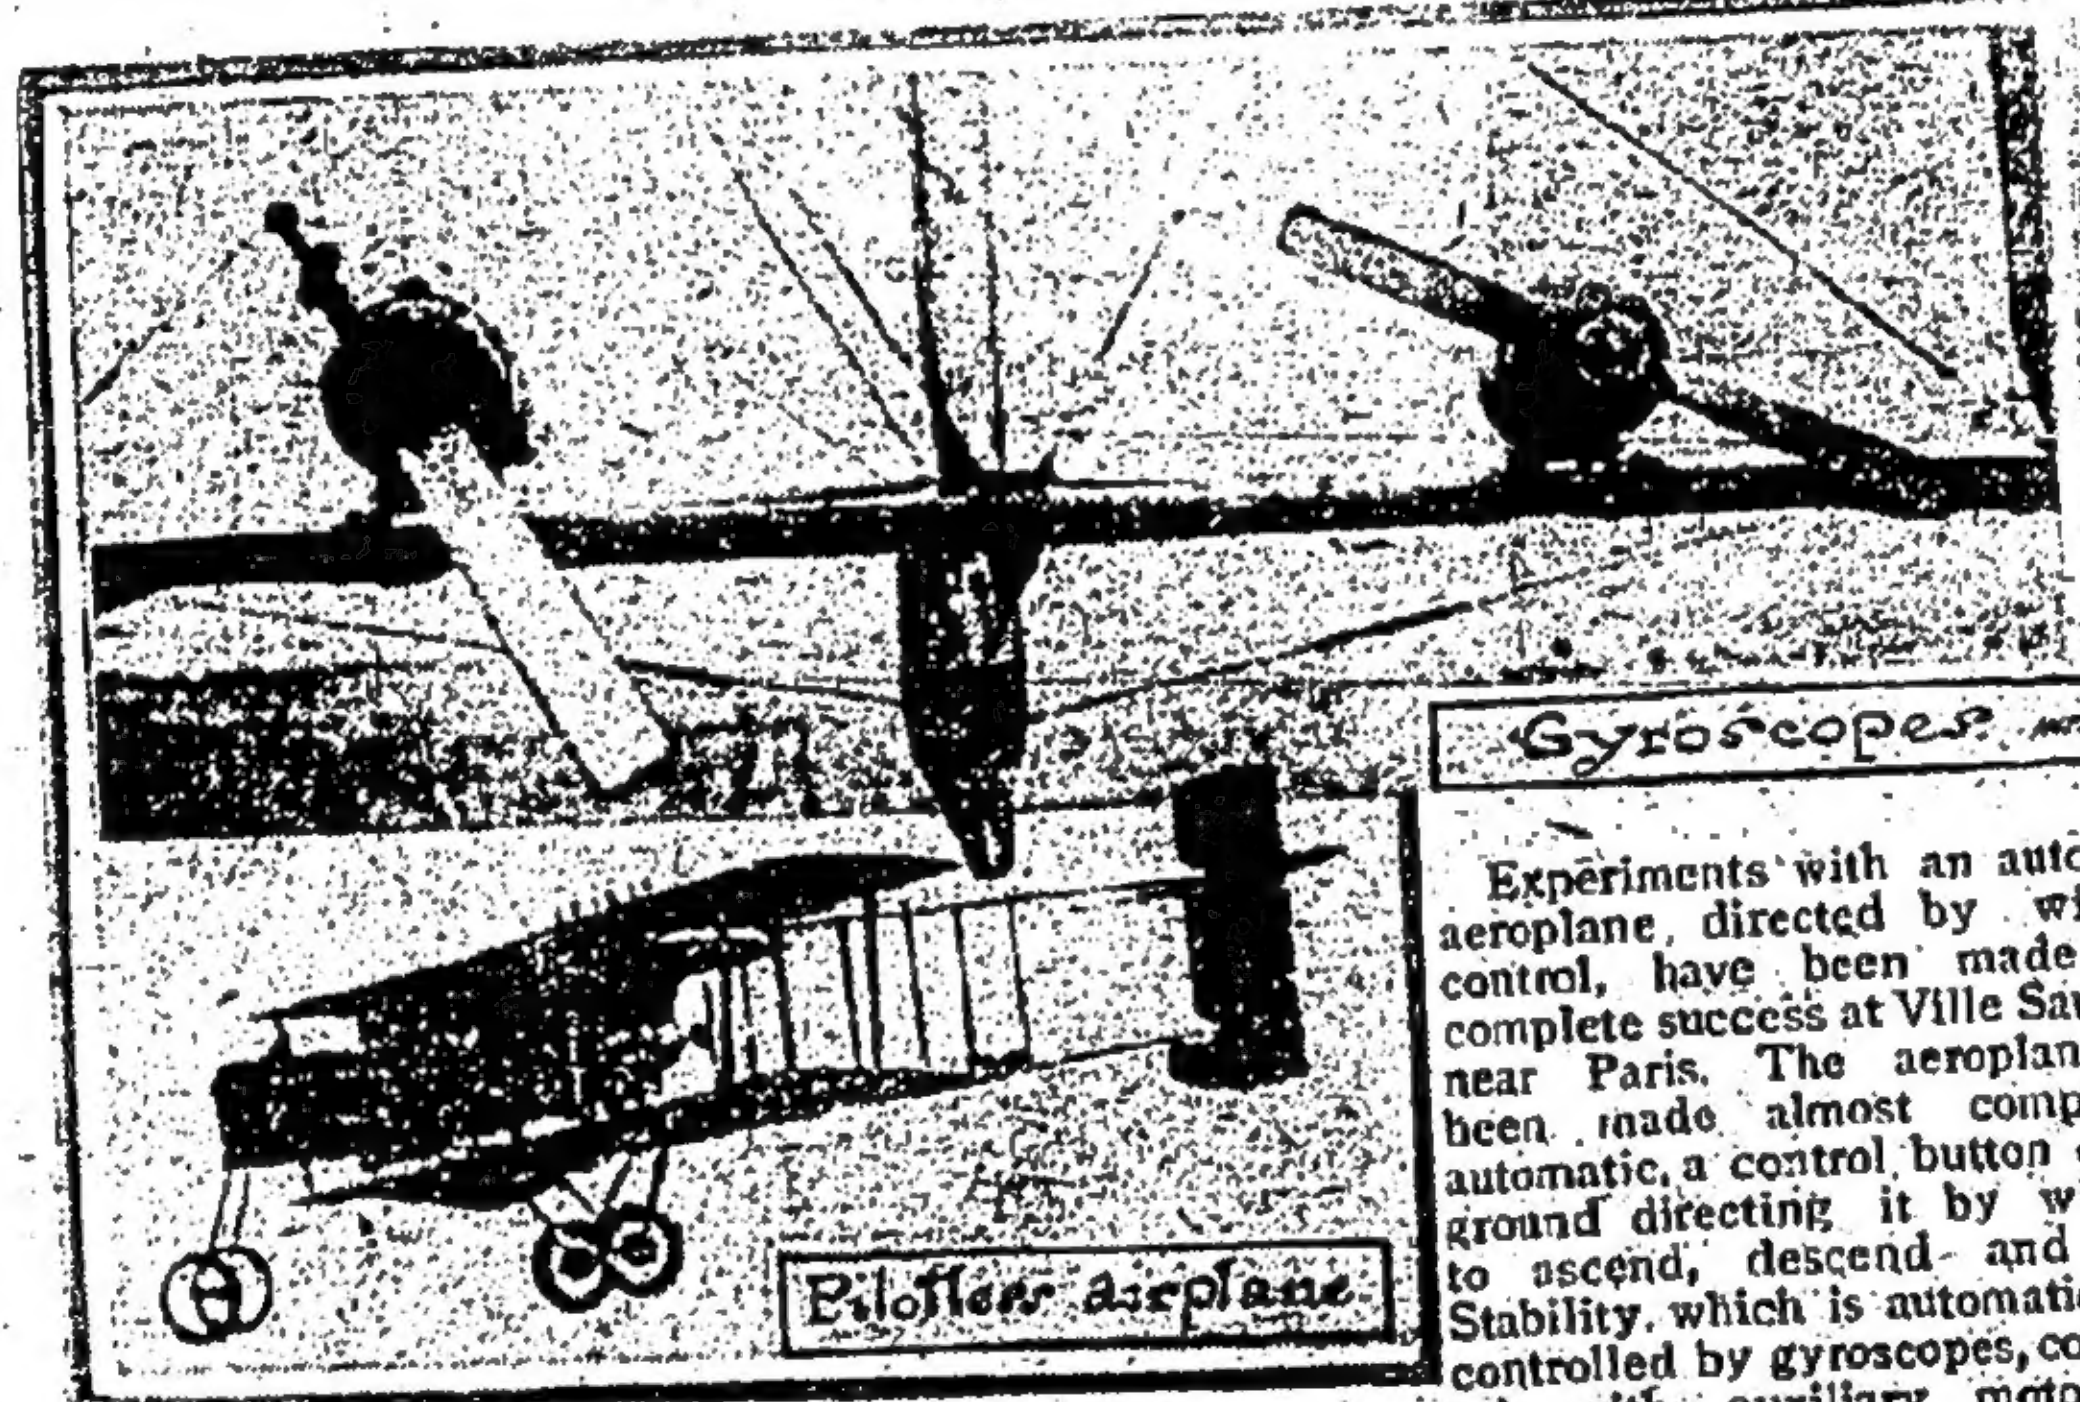

Montagu La Montagne, multi-millionaire New York society man, who, with his three equally famous brothers, including Rene, the international polo player, was sentenced to jail for selling liquors and wines to the exclusive Racquet and Tennis Club, has been released from prison and has sailed for a trip abroad. Before prohibition he and his brothers were among the largest liquor dealers in America.

The Hofman family, of Holland, who are on a walk that will eventually take them all around the world, caused quite a stir in London when they appeared in the streets there in their quaint native dress.

Peace in Ireland. Despite Eamonn de Valera's "proclamation", to suspend hostilities in Ireland there are no signs of peace in this "distressful land." This photograph shows Royal Ulster Specials on the guard behind barbed wire entanglements on the County Tyrone and County Monaghan fronts.

Experiments with an automatic aeroplane, directed by wireless control, have been made with complete success at Ville Sauvage, near Paris. The aeroplane had been made almost completely automatic, a control button on the ground directing it by wireless to ascend, descend and turn. Stability, which is automatic, was controlled by gyroscopes, connected with auxiliary motors. In landing the machine, when about 10 feet above the ground, righted itself and automatically shut off the motor. The motor again is automatically started, and the plane taxied along the ground to its hangar. No human hand touched it during the flight.

London's favourite pastime now is to play "Beaver," the idea being for two contestants to cry "Beaver!" every time they see a man with whiskers. The player who sees the most whiskered men in a day wins the wager. These two men, who claim the world's "whiskered" championship, are original Forty-niners, and between them they have more than 28 feet of whiskers. The man at the left has a beard that measures 11 feet 3 inches, while that of the man at the right is 17 feet long.
